The screenshot shows the 'FreeConferenceCall' website interface. On the left, there is a sidebar with a camera icon, a home icon, and a gear icon. The main content area features a 'Go back' button, a 'Sign Up' button, and a 'Log In' link. The central part of the page displays an illustration of a computer monitor and a smartphone, both showing a meeting interface with a plus sign, and the word 'Join.' below it. Below the illustration, there is a text prompt: 'Provide your name, email address and the Online Meeting ID of the meeting'. To the right of the illustration, there are three input fields: 'اضافة اسم المشارك', 'اضافة البريد الالكتروني', and 'meeting ID'. Below these fields is a checkbox labeled 'Remember me on this computer'. A large blue 'Join' button is highlighted with a red border. At the bottom right, there is a 'Check connection' button.
